

I am opposed to any changes in the "no call" regulations. It is an invasion of my privacy that I certainly do not miss. The mail is always available to those firms that want to contact me. Junk mail does not require I leave what I am doing to take care of it like junk phone calls do. Please leave the regulations as they are. Thank you!